First Choice: Second Choice:

We will make every effort to allocate you with your first choice unless that name has already been registered or is deemed too close to another studs name or unsuitable
I / we understand and agree; (i) a Stud Prefix is for the exclusive use of the person / membership registering it; (ii) Only current Ordinary (Breeder) Membership holders are eligible to register new animals in the database; (iii) I will ensure all registered animals carry correct individual identification; (iv) I will keep accurate records of all breeding activities, purchases, sales, births and deaths of registered animals on the Stud; (v) I will ensure that registered animals are height verified when due; (vi) I will sign a transfer form upon finalised sale of a registered animal; (vii) I will provide a signed Service Certificate for a doe in with a buck, once the sale/breeding transaction is finalised; (viii) I will operate in accordance with the relevant State and Council laws and; (ix) adhere to the MGBA rules, regulations and code of ethics and any decisions, actions and amendments of the MGBA Your chosen name is not automatic.

For the purpose of this application:- "I" will be used concurrently with: we, our, us, and will mean all people associated with me and all listed on this application.
As a condition of membership I/we hereby agree to; create a favourable public image of the Australian Miniature goat and the Miniature Goat Breeders Association of Australia Inc -- advance the interests of the MGBA at all times & maintain its integrity including following the highest standard of stud management, business practice & fair & proper competition -- promote the use of good sound judgment, ethical behaviour and professional conduct at all times -- record & maintain accurate details of animals listed in a miniature goat registry including the provision of transfer / service details for animal(s) within 30 days of completion of sale -- promote and support the development of the miniature goat breed -- bring together people interested in the miniature goat breeds -- collect, publish and share relevant information -- encourage and maintain high standards of breeding, consistent with adopted height and breed standards -- promote appropriate housing, handling, health, welfare, management and selling of animals -- comply with the Rules and Regulations relating to the keeping of goats as required by local and state authority and Miniature Goat Breeders Association -- encourage participation in events that promote development of the miniature breeds -- maintain a high standard of ethical conduct comprised of honesty, integrity and fair dealing between members, between members and the association and between members and non-members, essential to the success of the association.
I hereby apply to become a Member of the Miniature Goat Breeders Association of Australia Inc. (MGBA). I understand and agree that if this application is accepted, I will be bound by the Rules, Regulations and Code of Ethics set by the MGBA and any decisions, actions and amendments of the MGBA and will endeavour to familiarise myself with the same. I expressly authorise MGBA and those associated with them, to list and disclose my contact details, (name, stud name, phone number, suburb, state, postcode, email, website) to enquirers and to include my contact details in publications, handouts, website and promotional material. I expressly authorise the use of all my information provided and or collected for administrating functions of the MGBA, handling of complaints and disclosure of all such information including but not limited to; correspondence, proceedings and outcomes recorded in the minutes of the association. Further, when attending any event I acknowledge that I am responsible for any child and any non-member accompanying me. I am also aware that events have the potential to be dangerous and I accept that while every effort will be made with regard to safety including my own responsibilities, I will remain responsible for any loss, damage or injury incurred or caused by me and I will not hold the MGBA or its representatives responsible for any damage, loss or injury incurred. I indemnify the MGBA, its members and agents against all actions, claims, proceedings and liabilities and acknowledge that no matter or thing done or omitted by the management committee or duly elected official subjects the management committee, duly elected official or incorporated association to any liability. Each member hereby releases the incorporated association, management committee members and duly elected officials from any such liability. I understand and accept full responsibility for ensuring my contact details are kept up-to-date and I will not share my membership usernames or passwords. MGBA believes that everyone has a right to be treated fairly with dignity and respect and is committed to maintaining a safe positive environment (including social media) that promotes responsible, professional, respectful behaviour. In accordance with 'industry best practice' MGBA seek to recruit and retain those people committed to maintaining these principles and will reject those who do not uphold the same values. The MGBA reserve the right to cancel membership should a complaint/breach be substantiated
